INVASION IMPENDING
Oklahoma Farmers Called to Fight Grasshopper
Foray; Menace Greater Than Last Year's

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH) WALTERS (Okla.), April 24.—Warned by County Agent P. C. Struggs that a grasshopper invasion has made greater advances in April this year than that of last year made in May, farmers of Cotton county are organizing for the greatest drive against this insect that has been undertaken in this part of the State. The battle is to be carried on in the strength of union, so that no section of the county will be overlooked.

Flood Waters
Menace Towns
in Northwest

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH) WINNIPEG (Man.) April 24.—With the Assiniboine River at Brandon overflowing its banks and past the high water mark of the year, the flood situation is serious. In twenty-four hours the waters have risen more than six inches. Most of the low areas in Brandon are flooded. The waters in the Red River also are mounting rapidly and homes along the banks are in danger.

MUSIC CLUBS IN MEET
PHOENIX, April 24.—Thirty-two clubs were represented in the convention here of the Arizona Federation of Music Clubs. The next meeting will be in Bisbee. Mrs. T. J. Prescott of Phoenix is State president.

WOMEN IN LAW
BOSTON, April 24.—The study of law is appealing to women more than ever, it statistics compiled at the school of law, Boston University, are representative. Within the last five years the enrollment of women students has more than doubled, and this year's freshman class in law numbers more women than any other class on record. Women students are said to stand as well in their legal studies as the men.

Mrs. Fiske Enlists St. Louis Women in Drive

Actress Campaigning Against Nonfatal Snares

Makes No Attack on Industry of Fur Gathering

(BY A. P. MOTT WIRE)

ST. LOUIS, April 24.—A number of St. Louis women are to join the national campaign of the American Humane Society against the steel traps used in capturing fur-bearing animals, due to the efforts of Mrs. Minnie Madden Fiske, famous American actress, who is here today as honorary chairman of the new humane trapping committee of the American Humane Society.

The proposed campaign, it is stated, is not an attack upon the fur industry of the country, or an indictment upon the wearing of furs. It is announced that the co-operation of the fur industry is sought.

The immediate objects of the campaign, which Mrs. Fiske is devoting her time and energy to, are the presentation of the facts to women who wear furs and the enactment of State legislation throughout the country against the use of nonkilling traps.

KING GEORGE PUTS YACHT UP FOR SALE

His Majesty Feels Pinch of Hard Times; Buyer With $125,000 is Sought

(BY CABLE-EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)

LONDON, April 24.—His Majesty, King George, like many of his subjects, is feeling the pinch of hard times, and has decided to sell his yacht, the Alexandra, now in the hands of the Instone Company, leading British agents, who would like to find an American who would like to own a little ship which has served as a home of royalty since its construction in 1908.

The vessel is just over 2000 tons, 350 feet long and forty feet beam and is capable of a speed of seven knots. There are four royal cabins, three served as a home of royalty since its construction in 1908.

REGAL WELCOME FOR GLORIA

Popular Acclaim at Premiere Proves Her Dominion

Opening of 'Mme. Sans-Gene' Surpassing Event

Audience Star-Cluster is Height of Brilliance

BY EDWIN SCHALLERT

All other premieres may as well be put out of sight and forgotten.

The one that signalled the homecoming of Gloria Swanson shines forth supreme, and it probably never will be surpassed or even equaled in many seasons.

To state that the opening showing of "Madame Sans-Gene," with the star herself present, drew throngs is merely to mention a fact without an: color or emphasis. What they really should have done for this first presentation is to have hired the Coliseum.

Nothing except an approach to an actual battle could stem the tide of the crowds that packed in and kept packing around the corner where Grauman's Million Dollar Theatre is situated. It was almost as if the days of the armistice had in this locality been awakened to life once again.

Seeming hours of waiting, and hours of struggling brought limousines, taxicabs and other conveyances gradually to the entrance around the 8:30 hour. The most famous stars of picture land fought through the crush, and the rush and the surge of the tide of human beings, who watched for the arrival of Gloria the celebrated, Gloria the victor, Gloria the queen of popularity, and Gloria the Marquise de la Palais de la Cour.

Probably never within recollection has there been gathered within the walls of a theater here such an assemblage to offer honor and homage to one whose life and work are devoted to the making of motion pictures. I doubt, indeed, whether a single one of the players, who is ardent in his or her following of theatrical events, was absent on this most brilliant occasion, and not only that but many who seldom attend any public affair of this kind, who avoid the melee of the big event, were on hand for this unique and thrilling spectacle.

Stars that are, and stars that are to be, offered her glances that were warm with admiration, as Mrs. Swanson played "Auld Lang Syne," and she stood almost breathlessly at the head of the aisle, as if overcome by the emotion of the long applause, and the sentiment of her official entry more into the realm of the West, before coming down to her place in the center of the auditorium. The spirit was remarkable. There was not the wild ostentatious handclapping and cheering that elsewhere has greeted her; there was something almost intimate and heart-revealing that passed from her many friends to her.

It is very difficult to analyze the feelings that go into such an event as Miss Swanson's homecoming, because it has no precedent. It has occurred once, and the circumstances can never again be quite duplicated. For even though strangely enough, much of her highest success has been won away from here, there in the heart of the colony, the Coast, that can confer on any star the triumphal tributes that he or she merits.

The formal speech of greeting, which was informal rather than formal, was made by Cecil B. De Mille, who, although no longer in the Paramount organization, was responsible in large degree for Gloria's earliest recognition. His words of greeting also took account of the presence of Adolph Zukor, Jesse Lasky and Sidney R. Kent, as well as others who have come westward to attend the big convention of the company.

Finally as the climax he referred to the "little girl," the hint of talent and work and perseverance had won her way up to a supreme position as a great actress in the Paramount organization. At the mention of Miss Swanson's name the cheers and whistling and applause broke loose and still very heartily, with head thrown back and deeply and visibly affected, Gloria made her way down a platform at the end of the aisle, where she could be seen by those in balcony as well as everybody downstairs. Swaying as she stood there, having half to support herself with the aid of the group who accompanied her, she half whispered "Thank you, so much."

Madge Bellamy

In addition to playing the leading feminine role in "The Iron Horse," at Grauman's Egyptian Theatre, Miss Bellamy is appearing in "The Dancers," at the Forum, and "Do It Now," at the Cameo.

"Madame Sans-Gene" would be well-nigh impossible. The dieton on a single picture or a dozen pictures is nothing when compared with the glamour of something so exceptional and extraordinary as the interest and the appeal which the star of such an occasion has as a personality. Gloria's triumph was a triumph for herself alone. It was proof that her fame is something to conjure with, something altogether real.

Her appearance as the Marquise, with the tall and fine-looking Frenchman, accompanying her in the theater, could only heighten the approval that for her was felt. That "Madame Sans-Gene," the picture, will advance this fame of hers, bring it to bigger and more popular fruition, I could not say offhand. The taste in such matters is variable, and because of its lavish beauties it may by some be considered one of the most superior features in which she has ever played.

To rate it critically is to take account not of what transpired in the event, but to consider what the effect may be day in, day out, over that period of time when it is attended by those audiences which in the long run make a success or fail to bring the necessary approval and acclaim.

I think that "Sans-Gene" is destined for favor. There is sufficient of interest surrounding it, with the more personal element involved of Gloria's homecoming, to cause it to enjoy a run. There will probably be a lively effort on the part of theatergoers to obtain admission today, tomorrow, and perhaps even for several weeks or months. That is virtually to be anticipated.

In some ways, the production of "Madame Sans-Gene" is to my mind comparable in quality and effect with "Monsieur Beaucaire." It has a greater richness, because its vicissitudes are real. It brings a gorgeousness to view such as is seldom to be seen. One is really living in France while viewing it. The Compiegne and Fontainebleau have an atmosphere of history and tradition that completely fill the screen. The Napoleonic days in their glory and their grandeur are in the mise-en-scene almost relieved again.

As long as this illusion holds one as fascinated by what goes on, it is a dream of beauty in its province quite beyond compare. All the vaulted corridors, the archways, the windows, speak of something magnificent and belonging to an older age. Even the characters, and especially in the early part of the feature, the flashes of the revolution, and the beginning of the empire and of court life bring something of a new experience, a new thrill of splendor.

The story is the thing, though, that is wanting—that and dramatic conviction. A famous director once said that Madame Sans-Gene was ended as a play as soon as its heroine rose to be a duchess. And while this was not so true on the stage in every sense, where dialogue and characterization helped to carry things along, it is absolutely true in the medium of the cinema that demands so much of vivid action.

"Madame Sans-Gene" really does end an entertainment of the enthralling sort about the finish of the first part. The rest appears forced and theatrical and does not reach the same level as the earlier scenes. It is a pity, for the heart. There is practically not a scene toward the end that survives as either interesting or real.

I really am afraid, though, that before the finish of the production, some of the number of the audience members will feel inclined even to leave the theater, because of the dullness of what takes place.

To watch Gloria in portions of her portrayal, especially in the earlier scenes, is to derive compensation. There are times, I believe, when acting has never been better. It has a new fervor and a new poise when she is playing the little laundress with her ill-fitting clothes and her ungainly gait. There is the rarest sort of delicacy in the expressiveness that she brings to the role, and her interpretation of the character is unusual variety in its feeling as well as charm.

After she becomes the Duchess of the strain of the surroundings is a little too much for any characterization. What she does with the role of her leveled gown and the crown may be amusing, laugh-provoking, for many who see her, and she keeps up a lively tempo whenever she has the chance, even to gesticulating in very Frenchified way, but all this cannot help when a story has not really been transformed into adequate screen material.

The acting of the other players is nothing notable. Some of it is disappointingly French, and like all Napoleonic the present one is quite as unimpressive as usual for all his strutting, and many scenes. He is played by Emile Drain, undoubtedly a very good actor as an actor, but no Napoleon.

The best work in the support to my mind was done by Arlette Maréchal and Renee Herbelin as the sisters of the Emperor. They are concerned in the intrigue which would put "Madame Sans-Gene" out of the court. The scene where they are trying to cause her to make a faux pas was an interesting episode, and as they played it was quite as good as the usual scenes of the picture.

MARILYN MILLER RETURNS WITH PICKFORD

By Grace Kingsley

Not alone did Jack Pickford recently his him back to the great open spaces of Hollywood. Along with him came Marilyn Miller, stage star and his wife, to spend the summer here.

Marilyn Miller has been appearing in Barrie's "Peter Pan" in the East, but the production closed down just in time for her to pack up and come west with her husband.

Jack and Marilyn are taking a house shortly. At present they are staying with Douglas Fairbanks and Mary Pickford at their Beverly Hills home. They are looking about for a suitable home, and it is possible may either buy or build a home this summer.

At one time Miss Miller thought of doing a picture or two during the summer, and, of course, she may yet decide to take a header into the so-called silent drama; but just at the present writing she says she doesn't mean to.

However, Marilyn isn't going to let her art rust, and she is merely taking a short rest before starting in to study dancing with Theodore Kosloff, who is considered this country's foremost exponent of the Russian ballet school of dancing. Miss Miller studied with Mr. Kosloff last summer, and one reason for her coming west was that she might be again under his tutelage.

Jack Pickford and his wife spent the week-end at La Jolla. Jack is entirely recovered from his eye trouble, which hampered his work, and forced him to leave the "Case of the Green Woman," which Clarence Brown is making for Universal. He is resuming his role in the picture, and expects to take a rest after its completion for a few weeks at least.

DOROTHY PHILLIPS TO PLAY BIG ROLE

Following her long retirement from her film-fan public after the death of her husband, Allan Houder, Dorothy Phillips is again taking up the thread of her professional life. No sooner had she completed a leading role in a Fox production than again she was signed for another picture.

Miss Phillips has been selected by Metro-Goldwyn Pictures Corporation for one of the leading roles in "Without Mercy," which George Melford will direct. The story is by John Gwynne, and the role which Miss Phillips will portray is a difficult one, being that of Mrs. Enid Garth, society leader and also business woman. The star formerly appeared in all her husband's pictures, including "Man, Woman and Marriage," "Hearts of Humanity" and others.

Nazimova Leaves for Paris

Mrs. Nazimova has left for a trip abroad. She went away very quietly, but told friends that she was tired from her long months of work, and wanted a rest. She left on Monday, saying that she meant to go direct to Paris, and after a few weeks there might travel a bit through Europe.

Nobility Visiting Fox Studio

The Duchess of Sutherland was a visitor at the Fox studio yesterday, where she was a guest of honor at a studio luncheon given by Sol Wurtzel, and where she was photographed, a la still and a la movie. Her Grace is writing a book of travels concerning her trip around the world. She prefers being called by another of her titles, Lady Millicent Hawes.

Lady Hawes leaves today for Honolulu and thence to the Orient, provided she does not change her plans. Last night she was the dinner guest of Mary Pickford and Douglas Fairbanks at their home in Beverly Hills.

Frank Lloyd Busy

It looks as though Frank Lloyd were training for a professional explorer. From that travel in the wide-open spaces, who is now in Canada, comes a telegram vibrant with the thrill being enjoyed by the company which is making "First National's" "Winds of Chance." In fact, it would appear that "Winds of Chance" is a great little for this picture.

Running the rapids down White Horse Canyon and other stunts would seem to be for those players just like doing one's daily dozen for you or me. At any rate, here is the wire which is from J. L. Johnston of the Lloyd company:

"Frank Lloyd is getting all thrills he can get 2000 miles to obtain for 'Winds of Chance' these days. Yesterday Viola Dana, Anna Q. Nilsson, Ben Lyon, Victor McCaig, Hobart Bosworth, ran rapids of Seymour Canyon reproducing perilous trips down White Horse Rapids and Miles Canyon in Alaska gold rush days, and there were times when hundreds of spectators, lining high walls of canyon, were not certain that all on board three scows were safely through. At some places in the gorge the raging rapids were dropped ten feet, and there were times when in passing through rapids the scows were so close to sight of cameras, only to be tossed into view again as water brought them out of a pool and over rocks. Last night Lloyd company were guests of Mayor L. D. Taylor at banquet and tonight will leave for Lytton, B. C., on Fraser River, to continue Yukon river scenes before going to Wallawa Lake, Eastern Oregon."

"Harold Lloyd was a caller at location shortly before company left for Lytton."

Monte Blue Day-Land

In the future Monte Blue plans to enjoy his vacations between pictures far from the maddening throng. He has selected the most primitive of locales, amid the forest on the shores of Eire Lake in Lassen county, California. Having just consummated the purchase of several acres of choice land on the lake shore, the star plans to build a log cabin retreat on the wilderness property. Monte, who is very much at home outdoors, will hunt, fish and rest in this pleasant environment when he gets the opportunity between pictures this summer. When "The Limited Mail," the thrilling railroad drama in which Monte is portraying the engine driver, is completed by the Warner Brothers in a couple of weeks, the star and his wife, Dorothy, will leave Lake to attend to the final details for the building of their new vacation home.

Gloria and Her Marquis Welcomed to Los Angeles

Gloria's Homecoming Yesterday was somewhat more impressive than her arrival here as an unknown girl ten years ago. Hundreds were at the station to meet the popular star and her new Marquis-husband, shown above with her. She has been away from home for three years. (Times photo.)

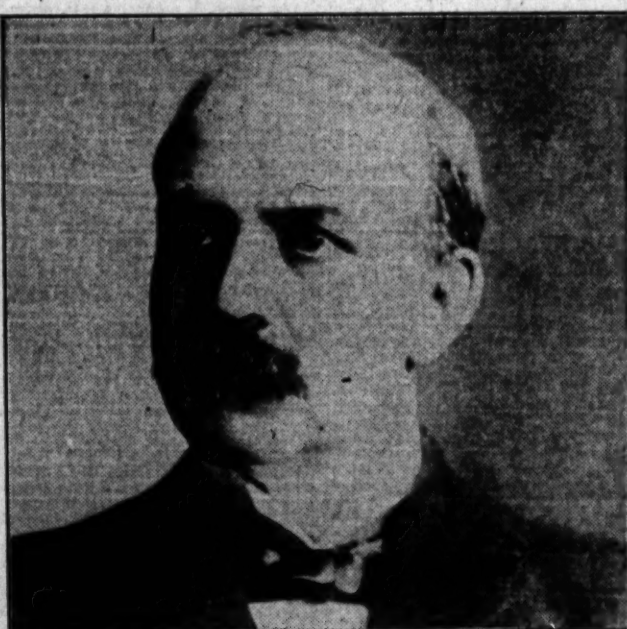

Forty-eight Men Lost Their Lives when the Japanese Freighter Raifuku Maru went down 400 miles off Boston last Tuesday. The above photo, which shows the vessel foundering in a heavy sea, was taken by a passenger aboard the S.S. Homeric and sent over the telephone wire to this coast. (P. & A. photo.)

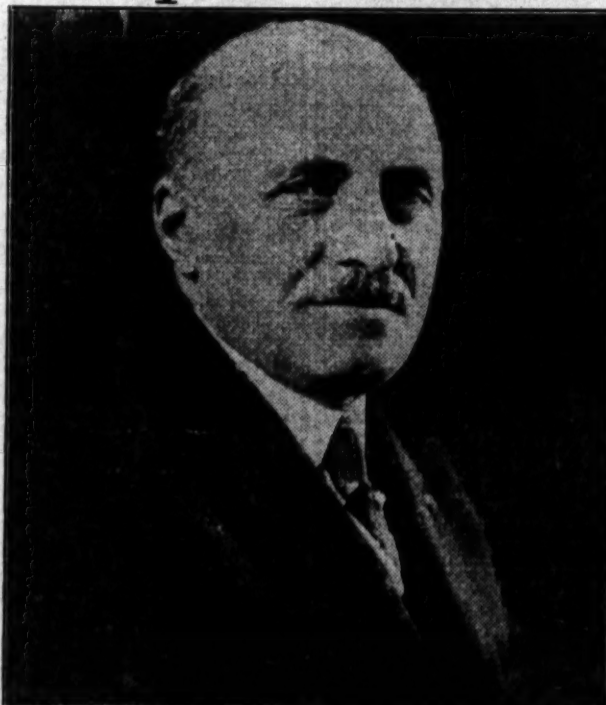

She Had Too Many Husbands. Mrs. Grace Roberts-Stonecipher-Timmons explained to Judge Summerfield yesterday in divorce court whether her attorney had taken her. The dilemma was easily solved by the court and the comely madame of many mates walked forth a free woman. (Times photo.)

Judge Bledsoe's Place on the Federal bench in the southern district of California, will be taken by E. J. Henning (above) of San Diego, Assistant Secretary of Labor, President Coolidge having yesterday announced the appointment.

Veteran Crandall Turns in Third Win of Season

Horan, Hood and Jacobs Star
at Bat for Krugmen

BY ROBERT E. RAY

Doc Crandall, veteran Seraph pitcher, turned in his third victory of the season by stopping the league-leading Salt Lake Bees, 8 to 3, before a good crowd yesterday at Washington Park. The series is now tied at two-all. Doc was opposed by Bill Piercy, former Vernon hurler who won his first three games for the Mormons. It was Piercy's first defeat of the season.

Both Piercy and Crandall allowed ten hits, but the Doctor was stingy with his safeties in the pinches. Piercy, on the other hand, found the going rough in the clinches.

Not only did Crandall pitch good ball all the way, but he also helped win his own game by driving in a couple of runs in the fourth inning. Horan, Hood and Jacobs drove in five of the other six runs, while Crandall worked a double-steal to account for the other marker.

The Bees threatened in the first inning when Crandall doubled after two were out. Crandall, however, got rid of Leslie on a grounder to Jacobs for the third out.

ANGELS GET ONE
Whaley opened the home half of the Angel first with a single past Vitt and Twombly sent him to third with a one-base poke to right. Horan hit into a double-play and Whaley scored while the two-pitch killing was in progress.

The Angels took advantage of Piercy's wildness to score three more runs in the third. After Crandall had been retired Whaley worked Piercy for a walk. Twombly grounded to Leslie, putting Whaley on second. Horan's single to center scored Whaley. Grimes walked. Wally Hood then patted a dinky double to left, driving both Shag and Sumner over the plate. Jacobs fanned to end the inning.

The Krugmen rallied Piercy for another brace of scores in the fourth. Three hits in a row accounted for the markers. Clyde Beck opened the inning with a hit to center and Sumner put him on third with a double to the left-field wall. Along came Crandall with a single to center and two more runs were in.

The Bees got their first runs in the sixth, but nobody, including Crandall himself, seemed to get

BEATS TROJANS

TUCSON (APRIL 24)—Staging a seventh inning rally to score seven runs on seven hits, the University of Arizona won the second game of the series, 12 to 6. The Trojans were leading at the start of the seventh 6 to 1. Arizona scored 4 tallies in the eighth round to clinch the game.

excited over the fact. Vitt and Frederick started the inning with safe hits and advanced to second and third on O'Doul's infield out. Vitt scored while Whaley was throwing out Leslie, while Sheehan drove Frederick over the plate with a hit to right. Lazzerre grounded to Beck for the third out.

LAZZERRE ERRS
An error by Tony Lazzerre of Twombly's grounder to start the Angel seventh, paved the way to the Seraph's final pair of scores. Babe tapped the hopper to Lazzerre and was safe when Tony threw low to Leslie. Horan sacrificed to second, and Grimes' infield out put him on first.

Piercy hit Hood in the shoulder with a pitched ball, knocking Wally down. The ball hit solidly and forced Hood to take a short run, but he walked down to first and continued in the game. Just as he was all right, Lazzerre worked a double-steal with Twombly, the latter scoring. Jacobs' double against the left-field fence brought Hood home.

Ray Leslie's home run over the left-field barrier in the eighth accounted for the Bees' final marker. Crandall retired the Bees in order in the ninth, winding up by getting rid of pinch-hitter Hulvey on a roller to Whaley.

Another one this afternoon, Chief Myers will be on the mound for the Krugmen, opposing his former mates, while either Bill Bahr, the big recruit right-hander picked up from the Francisco squad, or Hank Hulvey will do the slawork for the Bees. Score:

BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE

CHICAGO, April 24.—Eddie Collins and the fast-traveling White Sox made it three straight over Detroit by downing the Tygers, 4 to 3, here today. Wells held the Chisox to three hits in his six-inning stay on the mound, but was repaid for all four Chicago runs. Holloway, who finished for the visitors, did not yield a hit. Connolly kept the visitors at bay until the seventh when a homer with two on base gave the Sox a 3-2 lead. Lyons relieved Connolly and finished without allowing the Chisox another run, though Detroit did have the tying run in the ninth. Lyons fanned Harry Heilmann to end the game. Score:

STOCK MARKET FAIRLY DULL

Sterling Sells Highest in Ten Years

Union Pacific is Hammered Down 4 Points

Several Specialties Bid Up to New Peaks

NEW YORK, April 24.—Contrasting price movements characterized today's stock market, with the demand for sterling, weakness of the western railroads and strength of the public utilities being the outstanding features.

Establishment of the highest quotation in ten years by sterling, in anticipation of an early announcement of Great Britain's return to the gold standard, overshadowed all other financial developments of the day.

LUDLUM FALLS BACK The weekly mercantile review, while stating that fundamental conditions are sound, stressed the decline in commodity prices and the failure of spring trade to come up to the level of the previous year.

Union Pacific was hammered down 4 points to 123 1/2, the lowest price since last June, in further reflection of the relatively poor earnings reported for the first quarter.

Several specialties, including American Express, bid up to new peaks, while the price of gold fell to 134 1/2.

Other specialties, including American Express, bid up to new peaks, while the price of gold fell to 134 1/2.

It's the truth—Maytag Washers sell themselves. No sales talk is required when the "Maytag" is in full operation with the clothes in the tub and the action of the water evincing itself—but in case you have any skepticism, it will instantly vanish when the clothes leave the wringer, positively dazling in their whiteness, absolutely clean and almost dry. The roller in itself is a wonder and does its share of the work as efficiently and makes the clothes dry in a jiffy and shortens the laundry work in a most pleasing way. You will be simply delighted with the Maytag Washer. Everything about it is good. Made of cast aluminum, it retains heat and yet is light. There are no corners to collect dirt and make your tub hard to clean. Indeed, try as you will you can find no feature which you would change. Schultze are the successful local representatives of the Maytag Washer. 745 E. Figueroa is their address. By stopping in or phoning they will give you full particulars of this washing machine and arrange to demonstrate it at your convenience. The terms of $10 down and $10 a month are so liberal that every woman can now have a Maytag of her very own!

Practice the art of good carving. A well-carved roast looks better, tastes better and goes further. Let the first use of left-over roast beef be the serving of it sliced cold; cut thin slices of rare beef, arrange nicely on a platter and garnish with something green and crisp. Serve a vegetable salad.

Delicious crackers, sweet cakes and macaroni as well as fine candy are made by that old established firm of Kahn Beck Co. Kahn Beck Co. have grown steadily during the twenty-five years they have been organized. Your patronage has made them grow in the past and the continuance of your friendship will bring even bigger returns in the future but with this difference: You will reap a rich harvest as well as they for a recent issue of preferred and common stock to the public at $10 a share, paying 5 per cent on the preferred, will permit all to invest. Most women, by careful planning, save on their allowance and this investment seems to be the logical way to make your savings grow. Kahn-Beck are located at 402 Aliso St. Drop a card to them right away if possible. The shares are limited now.

If the busy housewife will keep in her shopping handbag a small notebook, she will find it a most useful each year, and jot down the things she must get on her next trip in town, things which will not be forgotten and a handy list made out at the last minute will be avoided.

If you want just a plain oil dressing or even a mayonnaise, it must be made of Castorco Bros. Imported Virgin Olive Oil—this oil salad will not be the success it should be. Castorco Bros. Olive Oil possesses a flavor and taste which cannot be appreciated until you try it. All our finest grocers sell it. We all need a salad of some kind every day, so when ordering fruit or vegetables remember Castorco Bros' olive oil.

The woman who wears artificial hair should wash it every time her own hair is shampooed. The oil and grease get in the false hair the same as it does in her growing hair and to have a perfectly clean head both should be washed.

Mining Men of State to Meet Here May 15-16

Mining men from all sections of the State, representing all phases of the industry, will meet here May 15 and 16 to formulate a co-operative program for the immediate and effective development of the mineral resources of California. The leading industrial and utility agencies of the State will also be included in the plan.

This conference, called by the California Development Association, will mark a new era, it is stated, in the development of this industry, as it will be the first time that various mining groups including the metallic, cement and gypsum, brick and clay, crushed rock and gravel and the general nonmetallic have ever met for co-operative effort.

Preliminary meetings of these groups have already been held.

SUSPECT PAIR HELD

Contributing to Delinquency of Minor Girls Charged

Asserted to have spent the night in a mountain shack with three young girls, George Thomas and Paul Woodman were charged yesterday in Judge Archibald's juvenile court by Dep. Dist. Atty. Florence Woodhead.

According to investigator J. P.

It is no problem at all for the Arrowhead Mountain Springs Water Company to bring and to deliver the purest of Arrowhead Springs water direct to your home. Arrowhead Mountain Springs Water is exactly the same as that in which you reveled while far up in the San Bernardino Mountains where it came trickling from the cool, shady spring and you knew that you had never drank anything quite so delicious or satisfying. "Arrowhead," which is delivered to your home in five-gallon demijohns, is exactly the same. It's brought to you clean and bottled in the natural state—Why, for 50 cents you can get a demijohn of it, and stand by it. Of course, it's wonderful, so let's not lose any more time but phone HUNBOLT 2926 this minute and leave your order.

Four ounces of shelled nuts equal four ounces of meat in protein substance and more than double the food value. When found difficult to digest put them through the grinder as, finely ground, they are much more easily assimilated.

The "Sunday Special Bricks," put out under the Lily Brand by the L. A. Creamery are growing in a surprising manner popularity. In fact the demand is most wonderful. Of course, the rich creaminess as well as the smoothness is noted and appreciated by those who give their patronage—creamy as well as the smoothness. Then the flavors have been so well chosen with the taste of the young cream to evoke a happy memory. What could be more appealing than black walnut, orange sherbet or fruit custard for Sunday?

Melted paraffin poured over the cut end of ham will keep it indefinitely without danger of mold.

You never think of rubbing your clothes when you wash them with the aid of Bobrick's Genuine Cloudy Ammonia. All that is necessary is to soak the clothes in cold water containing two or three tablespoonsful of Bobrick's Ammonia to the gallon. The dirt and grease become loosened and dissolve readily.

Protein is the foodstuff necessary for building muscular tissue. It is abundant in lean meat, milk, white of egg, wheat, cheese, etc. It also furnishes heat and energy.

After your first taste of Glen Rosa Marmalade you are bound to say like hundreds of others, "That's the best orange marmalade I ever hope to eat." It's not too sweet and yet isn't bitter, and besides there is an indescribable something about it which certainly touches the spot! At all first-class grocers, you know.

Acustom the children to fix dried prunes and dates instead of always giving them candy. They are beneficial and the kiddies will enjoy them.

A "Sanitas" tablecloth is just the best thing for a kitchen table. Really, you must see a whole family made of "Sanitas" with the flannel back. They are worthy of your attention, for first of all the patterns are the clearest imitation of damask linen—even to the pattern and imitation weave, and then they wear forever, you might say. It saves much washing of linens and is just as nice—because you can wash it off in a second's time. Sanitas for luncheon sets decorated with oil colors or stenciled has long been acknowledged as the finest cloth on the market. You can see a full line of "Sanitas" at the Matthews Paint Co., 1245 S. Hill.

Here are down pillows—comfort and so restful—Sure you'll marvel at the quality and price given at Simank Bros., 725-27 W. 5th. They give you genuine down in linen ticking. They have earned a high reputation as bedding experts. If your supply is low and needs replenishing you should go by all means to Simank's.

Smith of the District Attorney's office, the girls were runaways from the El Retiro School for Girls, a county institution. The girls are being held in juvenile hall pending arraignment of the men before Judge Archibald.

BENEFACTOR DUPED

Artist Befriends Pair But It Proves to Be Costly

"Cast your bread upon the waters and it shall return to you tenfold."

Capt. A. Axtel, an artist, of 434 Rainbow Drive, cast his bread, but as yet, it hasn't returned to him. According to Capt. Axtel's report to the police he befriended an ambitious young lady, who first called to see him about purchasing one of his paintings which he had advertised for sale. The young lady was loquacious. Capt. Axtel was philanthropic. The result was the captain agreed to teach the young lady how to paint. She developed financial difficulties. The captain advanced her money. Then her brother arrived from Arizona. The brother couldn't find work, so the captain out of sympathy for the girl, advanced more money.

The brother got an idea. "Give me $475, captain," he said, "and I'll go to New York and buy magazines. Then we will sell copies to the public here and have a life-long income of $200 a month."

The brother got the money. He and his sister punctured a hole in the atmosphere. The bread is still waiting for his "return to tenfold."

How to give your family an Italian dinner? It's the easiest kind of meal in the world to get ready. Suppose you have spent the day shopping and it's too late to do any marketing—well, then go over to Mora's Specialty, 215 S. Spring, and have them prepare for you a pan of tagliarini and ravioli, mixed with plenty of mushroom and tomato sauce and a generous sprinkling of grated cheese. The pan you can rent and if you decide on this sort of feast early enough meat or Vienna balls, too, and your dinner is ready. Mrs. Mora is famed for her cooking and stand by it. Of course, it's wonderful, so let's not lose any more time but phone HUNBOLT 2926 this minute and leave your order.

Sour Milk Griddle Cakes. Mix together one and one-fourth cupful of flour, one-half teaspoonful of soda, one-half teaspoonful of salt, one tablespoonful of sugar, one well-beaten egg and one cupful of sour milk. Beat well and bake on a hot griddle.

When meat is boiled the water dissolves out some valuable food and flavoring materials. Save such water for soups, or for use in stews or gravies, or for cooking vegetables. Every bit of meat or fish left over can be combined with gelatine, cereals or vegetables for making meat cakes, meat fish pies, and add flavor and food value to made dishes. Every spoonful of left-over gravy refined and used in soups and sauces, or as flavoring for meat pies, croquettes or vegetables.

Wrap the soiled clothesline around the washboard and scrub with sponges and a scrubbing brush. Place under the spigot to rinse well and dry in the sun.

Something new under the sun is here. Listen! How often after washing your hands with the ordinary soap you have complained of your hands feeling rough and harsh, ointments for this chapped condition leave your hands either sticky or greasy? Just to overcome this common complaint among the women folk and at the same time give them a fragrant, delightful preparation which meets the water conditions peculiar to our city, the Los Angeles Soap Company has given us Mission Bell Soap, a pleasing, delightful toilet soap. Its perfume is so delicate yet so refined as to be the manner in which it lathers, freely, but not wastefully; and the beneficial effects on your skin and hair, too—will make you a devotee of Mission Bell Soap. Have you tried it yet? Then don't delay, see your grocer!

To successfully clean black lace avoid the use of hot water and harsh water and dip the lace up and down in this. When the water cools sufficiently, squeeze the lace dry and pull out the edges. Press between muslin to prevent glazing.

Travaglin's Spaghetti Shop at 1803 West Seventh street, one door west of the Rotisserie is open for your orders and convenience, and fair value. Here you may order roasts of fowl or meat or game to be delivered at your home at any hour in any quantity. Telephone 2-2952 and your dinner trouble will end.

Carbohydrates furnish heat and energy; found in cereals, potatoes and some fruits in the form of sugar or starch.

A dainty luncheon, or a superb dinner a la Bohemia is a treat you'll enjoy at Mora's Grill, 107 W. Market street, where there is a superb service by the proprietor himself and people who are real connoisseurs of good things to eat dine there daily.

Fats, found in butter, cream, olive oil, lard, etc., also supply energy and heat.

Now's the time to buy seeds, bulbs and plants at Winsel-Gibbs, 211 S. Main, because prices there are half and half elsewhere.

Enrollment for Training Camps Nearing Quotas

A total of more than 400 young men of Los Angeles county have already filed applications to attend the two citizens' military training camps which are to be conducted in the State during the summer, according to an announcement yesterday by Col. E. V. Smith of the Ninety-first Division, who will command the camp at Del Monte.

Col. Smith will arrive in Los Angeles in a few days to confer with Col. George H. Chas. and Maj. H. L. Suydam, representatives here of the Military Training Camps Association. In a statement issued from San Francisco, Col. Smith stated that enrollment quotas for the two camps are being rapidly filled and that young men desiring to attend should file their applications immediately. Though the quota for Camp Winfield Scott is virtually complete, he stated, there is still an opportunity to enroll for the Del Monte camp, and candidates from the larger educational institutions, commercial firms and business organizations are particularly desired.

OFFICES REMOVED

Joseph W. Vickers, former secretary to Gov. Richardson, and his law partner, Kimpton Ellis, announced yesterday the removal of their offices from Suite 714 to Suite 1219-1222, Bank of Italy Building, 649 South Olive street.

CAN'T KEEP TAB ON ALL HER MATES

Woman Freed of Third Hubby Can't Remember What Happened to First

"There was a young woman in an awful stew. She had so many husbands she didn't know what to do." So she wrote to Attorney George Hooper, and he took her to Judge Summersfield, and finally, yesterday morning, Mrs. Grace Timmins, who used to grace the entrance of Grauman's Theater in the role of head usher, legally rid herself of her third and latest spouse. She obtained a decree annulling her marriage—or what she had supposed was her marriage—to Robert D. Timmins.

It appeared that in her hasty acquisition of one husband after another, Mrs. Timmins had neglected the little detail of waiting for her decree of divorce from Timmins's predecessor to become final. So that despite of Timmins's decree of divorce from her first husband, No. 2 more or less disapproved of himself by quietly waiting himself out of her life, she said, when she obtained her decree of divorce on desertion charges. His name was Charles Storch.

Husband No. 1 was Arch Roberts. Mrs. Timmins was a little hazy as to just what happened to him. "I can't be expected to remember every little thing, can I?" she exclaimed when pressed for details. "That was a long time ago—four or five years—and so many things have happened since then. Arch was a nice fellow."

Her decree of annulment having been signed and all her marital accounts thus being in balance, Mrs. Timmins is planning to leave tomorrow night for Denver, where lives her sister, the wife of a ball player.

"I do want to be there for the opening game," she said. "Don't you think ball players are adorable?"

Girl Scholar Cracks Skull in Auto Fall

Olea Sawyer, 17 years of age, a high school student, received serious injuries yesterday when she tumbled to the pavement from an automobile in which she was riding to school. The girl is suffering from a fractured skull. It was stated at the Receiving Hospital, where she was taken.

Together with four other high school girls, she had crowded into a small automobile driven by Tom Rogers, 17 years of age, of 1522 North Normandie avenue, who had offered to take them to school. Miss Sawyer was perched on the seat of the machine and when the car swerved around the corner she lost her hold and plunged to the pavement. The girl lives at 841 North Harvard boulevard.

Last Grace Day for Amusement Tax is Thursday

Theaters and other places of amusement charging admission prices in excess of 50 cents; ice-cream parlors and dealers in paintings and art goods and country, golf, sporting and athletic clubs were warned yesterday by Collector of Internal Revenue Rex B. Goodell that reports and payment of tax for March must be returned by the 30th inst., to avoid delinquency penalties.

Membership drives pushed by many newly organized country clubs is expected to result in a marked increase in this class of tax receipts, according to Collector Goodell.

TEMPORARY BAN ON AREA FOR FISHING

Temporary closing of a portion of Big Rock Creek, in the Angeles National Forest on the Mojave side of the mountains east of Palmdale, was announced yesterday by Port C. Miller, deputy county forester, and game warden. The measure was taken to safeguard the public from blasting operations, it was stated. A new trail is being cut into the heavy timber at the head of Big Rock Creek, primarily for the purpose of constructing fire breaks to safeguard a menacing fire condition, and secondarily, for the use of the public in reaching scenic spots in the region. The closing means that trout fishing in the district affected will not be permitted on and after May 1, although the season is open in other regions. The period of restraint is expected to last until about May 15.

OIL COMPANY RAIL RATE CASES HEARD

Complaints of the Wilshire Oil Company and Guardian Gasoline Corporation against the Santa Fe and Sunset railroads, charging that excessive rates on shipments of gasoline have been charged, were heard yesterday by State Railroad Commissioner Squires and the matter was taken under advisement for decision. The Wilshire Oil Company charged that between July 20 and September 19, 1925, the two railroads levied rates of 6.5 cents a barrel on shipments made from Fellows to Los Angeles, while a rate of 11.5 cents was charged the Richmond Oil Company on similar shipments. The company asked a reparation of $1181.10. The Guardian Gasoline Corporation alleged that during March, April and May, 1924, the railroads levied rates from 6 1/2 to 8 1/2 cents too high to permit the company to sell to Vernon and asked a reparation of $209.56.

ARROYO RULING BY WORK

Secretary Decides Land Contested by Mrs. Givens Should Revert to Angeles Forest

Secretary of the Interior Hubert Work has affirmed the decision of the register and receiver of the United States Land Office in Los Angeles in holding that 73.16 acres, three miles above the Devil's Gate Dam in Arroyo Seco near Pasadena, should revert to the Angeles National Forest.

Announcement of the action was received by mail yesterday by George H. Cecil, supervisor of the Angeles National Forest, from Washington, and leaves only one avenue of contest open to Mrs. Helen L. Givens, holder of the title, that of appealing to the United States Supreme Court.

Secretary Work's approval of the decision of Receiver B. B. Smith and Register D. S. Valentine is the culmination of eight years of contest waged by Mrs. Givens. The prize was land valued at more than $1000 an acre for its cabin site, worth alone, $45,000 worth of rustic bungalow, and the unestimated valuation of the land to the city of Pasadena as part of its watershed.

Mrs. Givens based her contention to title on the grounds of an assignment from Milton D. Painter, executed November 2, 1917.

While no formal interest in the contest was manifested by the city officials of Pasadena, inquiries of an informal nature were directed to the local land office from time to time as to the progress of the suit.

The land originally was granted to the Atlantic and Pacific Railroad by Congress in July 27, 1866. Title was forfeited shortly afterward when the road did not materialize.

The Southern Pacific Railroad succeeded to the right and sold title to Daniel D. Brunk, who was protected as an innocent purchaser. Brunk later assigned his claim to Mrs. Givens. She was a widow when she married Brunk. Her decree of annulment having been signed and all her marital accounts thus being in balance, Mrs. Timmins is planning to leave tomorrow night for Denver, where lives her sister, the wife of a ball player.

FEDERATED SOCIETIES IN SESSION

Officers of Affiliated State Organizations Observe Anniversary

More than fifty officers of the Federation of State Societies, including past-presidents of the association, celebrated the sixteenth anniversary of the founding of the organization at a jubilee luncheon given yesterday at the Broadway Department Store Cafe.

Among the honored guests were Judge Wolde M. York, who was the first president of the Federation, and Col. F. H. Cables, the present president. C. H. Parsons, secretary of the federation, presided at the meeting, and told of the valuable aid which the organization has given to the various State societies since its institution.

Among the speakers was John Hooper, president of the Canadian Tourist Society, who said that, according to indications, this coming fall will mark the heaviest influx of visitors and home-seekers from the cold belt to Southern California ever known in history.

Another speaker was Col. C. H. Haskins, president of the Pennsylvania State Society, who told of the founding of that organization, the first State society ever organized in the Southland, forty-three years ago.

STARTS NEW MOVE.
A broadcasting station becomes
to the genuine artist the same object of devotion and loyalty that the Alma Mater represents to the college student. It is, therefore,

to be expected that the next step in chamber music formation will be the banding together of the congenial artistic souls who have found radio to be their greatest channel of expression. In selecting the call letters of The Times station as the title by which the trio
will be known we have established
a precedent among serious musicians which we venture to predict will be followed by others until
from coast to coast. Chamber music organizations will acquire new impetus for their much neglected
art because it will be supported by countless devoted radio fans.

Needless to say the KHJ Concert Trio will not be heard over
any other station either as an organization or separately. Our family might be interested to know that the average age of the trio is twenty-five years and last night
perhaps the outstanding feature
of the performance was the fire
and enthusiasm combined with a reverence for the composer which seems to be a peculiar gift of the very young.

Morris Stoloff possesses a rare
beauty of sonority united with a facile technique and splendid mental equipment which should make him a place among the really
great violinists of his generation.
William Van den Burg, famous pupil of Casals, was introduced by Encle John to Radio last night.
The tone of the two instruments blended together last night like the weaving of gold and silver thread and it seemed almost as though the perfection
of ensemble must have been the result of long musical association.

Opening with the first movement of the Tchaikovsky Trip
the KHJ Concert Trio ran the
gamut of emotions from tragedy
to lightness. The program was Haydn and Mozart. All we ask,
dear family, is for you to give
any organization which belongs exclusively to KHJ your sincere support and we will try to prove worthy of your loving interest.

Caro Buratti, accompanied by his daughter, Audrey Buratti,
again exhibited his fine command
of the cornet. The Harmony Four,
which is one of our favorite male
quartets, golden-throated Lenore
Killian, contralto, and our college hero, Hatch Graham, made up the rest of a highly diversified and interesting evening. The program was under the leadership of J. T. Hopkins, representative of the
D. & B. Pump and Supply Company.

From 12 to 12:30 the Leighton's
Arcade Cafeteria Orchestra gave their daily concert and then we
put on a very attractive hour program presenting Shorty Brandenburg, tenor; Lee Roscoe, "The Rag Man of KHJ," and the Piggy
Wiggy Hawaiian Trio.

The Pacific States Electric Company matinee presented the Pacific States Check Seal Trio in an interesting program by women
composers exclusively—Grace Cur-
rey, harp; Jennie Durkee, ukulele,
and Dorothy Lewis, contralto.

The children's hour brought us
Richard Headrick, screen juvenile;
Viola Von, child actress, whose
radio name is still pending; Mary
Jane Reilly, 3-year-old reader;
Luis Klotz, 5-year-old reader, and

William E. Bush, Inc., Presents KHJ Super-Program

MINIATURE PHILHARMONY
SYMPHONIC ORCHESTRA

whose fertile fields the "black gold" pours forth in endless abundant, should take infinite pride.
This concern was founded by Daniel Daniels and Lyale P. Burgess in 1905.

Yesterday was the twentieth anniversary of the beginning of the
D. & B. Pump and Supply Company, and so great is the influence of radio that they could think of no more fitting celebration than a program from KHJ.

During the course of the evening the uninitiated discovered that a pump and supply company concealed many romantic and thrilling facts beneath its apparently cold commercial exterior. The
D. & B. Pump and Supply Company has built a business from nothing to $2,000,000 in sales a year with five branch stores, a branch manufacturing plant and representatives in all the principal oil fields. Their slogan is "Quality First."

Our studio was the scene of another birthday last night. It marked the advent of the KHJ Concert Trio composed of Morris Stoloff, violin; William Van den Burg, cello, and myself. There are manifold difficulties in the way of offering an unprejudiced review of the trio's debut, which I am sure my radio family will appreciate. And yet, it must not be passed over lightly, because the occasion was fraught with deep significance.

STARTS NEW MOVE.
A broadcasting station becomes
to the genuine artist the same object of devotion and loyalty that
the Alma Mater represents to the college student. It is, therefore,

chamber music formation will be
the banding together of the con-
genial artistic souls who have
found radio to be their greatest
channel of expression. In selecting
the call letters of The Times station as the title by which the trio
will be known we have established
a precedent among serious musicians which we venture to predict
will be followed by others until
from coast to coast. Chamber music organizations will acquire new
impetus for their much neglected
art because it will be supported
by countless devoted radio fans.

Needless to say the KHJ Concert Trio will not be heard over
any other station either as an organization or separately. Our family might be interested to know
that the average age of the trio is
twenty-five years and last night
perhaps the outstanding feature
of the performance was the fire
and enthusiasm combined with a
reverence for the composer which
seems to be a peculiar gift of the
very young.

Morris Stoloff possesses a rare
beauty of sonority united with a
facile technique and splendid mental equipment which should make
him a place among the really
great violinists of his generation.
William Van den Burg, famous pupil of Casals, was introduced by Encle John to Radio last night.
The tone of the two instruments blended together last
night like the weaving of gold
and silver thread and it seemed
almost as though the perfection
of ensemble must have been the result of long musical association.

Opening with the first movement of the Tchaikovsky Trip
the KHJ Concert Trio ran the
gamut of emotions from tragedy
to lightness. The program was Haydn and Mozart. All we ask,
dear family, is for you to give
any organization which belongs exclusively to KHJ your sincere support and we will try to prove worthy of your loving interest.

Caro Buratti, accompanied by
his daughter, Audrey Buratti,
again exhibited his fine command
of the cornet. The Harmony Four,
which is one of our favorite male
quartets, golden-throated Lenore
Killian, contralto, and our college
hero, Hatch Graham, made up the
rest of a highly diversified and interesting evening. The program
was under the leadership of J. T. Hopkins, representative of the
D. & B. Pump and Supply Company.

From 12 to 12:30 the Leighton's
Arcade Cafeteria Orchestra gave
their daily concert and then we
put on a very attractive hour program presenting Shorty Branden-
burg, tenor; Lee Roscoe, "The
Rag Man of KHJ," and the Piggy
Wiggy Hawaiian Trio.

The Pacific States Electric Company matinee presented the Pacific States Check Seal Trio in an interesting program by women
composers exclusively—Grace Cur-
rey, harp; Jennie Durkee, ukulele,
and Dorothy Lewis, contralto.

The children's hour brought us
Richard Headrick, screen juvenile;
Viola Von, child actress, whose
radio name is still pending; Mary
Jane Reilly, 3-year-old reader;
Luis Klotz, 5-year-old reader, and Bobbie House, 3-year-old reader, pupil of Mrs. Leland Moore. At

SHRIMP COCKTAIL
Mix one and a half cups of tomato ketchup with two tablespoons of Worcestershire sauce, two tablespoons of lemon juice,
one tablespoon of horseradish,
one teaspoonful of tarragon vinegar, and a seasoning of salt and paprika. Fill cocktail glasses two-thirds full with peeled, cooked and chilled shrimps. Fill the glass with the sauce and garnish with a slice of lemon.

BEARNAISE SAUCE
Place in a small saucepan six crushed peppercorns, one finely chopped shallot and three tablespoons of tarragon vinegar. Reduce to one tablespoonful of liquid. Add three egg yolks and two tablespoons of butter broken in small bits. Beat over the fire until the butter is melted. Rub through a sieve into a double boiler and beat the mixture while adding bit by bit six tablespoons of butter broken in small bits. Thoroughly incorporate each bit of butter before adding any more.

HANGTOWN FRY
Drain the liquor from one cupful of California oysters and dry in a cloth. Cook a light brown in two tablespoons of hot butter. Beat six eggs with three tablespoons of water and a tespoonful of salt and pepper; heat two tablespoons of butter in a frying pan, pour in the egg mixture, and stir until softly scrambled; add the cooked oysters and serve over squares of buttered toast.

PEACHES, SAN JOSE
Cut six large rounds of sponge cake from slices of loaf, sponge cake and fry a nice brown on both sides in hot butter. Place a slice on each serving dish. Place on it a half of a preserved peach, cut side up; fill the pit hole with seeded and chopped cooked prunes, cover with whipped cream; sprinkle with finely chopped toasted almonds.

Swollen Ankles
Miss H.—You do not state your age, but if you are under 21, you are about twenty pounds under weight. You are probably under par in health. That may account for your swollen ankles.

Do you have to stand on your feet a good deal? Do you wear shoes that are comfortable and medium heeled? You had better have a thorough physical examination including a blood and urine analysis by a competent physician.
Send for our instruction booklet on gaining and losing weight.
(Inclose 10 cents in stamps and a self-addressed, stamped, good-sized envelope.) We are getting wonderful reports from the followers from its use.

Dear Followers: When sending for material which we have, please remember to inclose a stamp, self-addressed envelope bearing your full name and address. The booklet on reducing excess weight is the only one for which you must inclose 10 cents in stamps. Send your letter to me in care of this office. Please sign your name as evidenced by the initials "W. H. W." and use the envelope. Remember it is impossible for me to charge you for the material. I will send you the material as soon as I receive your letter. The questions you ask will be answered in the next issue of the "Economy" package. If you are of general interest, don't forget the stamp and self-addressed envelope. You expect me to send you the information I have offered.

GRAVE OF MYSTERY
GIVES UP TIN CANS
It was not a body that Deputy Sheriff Allen and Stensland found after much energetic digging in what appeared to be a newly turned grave about two miles from La Crescenta yesterday. It was a pile of tin cans buried six feet underground. The tin can grave was called to the attention of the deputies by a greatly excited real estate man who found a pair of women's slippers near the grave and immediately concluded that the feminine wearer had been slain and buried there.

When John Monckoff opened his cafe at 2088 Santa Fe avenue yesterday morning for business he discovered that he didn't have a cafe any more.
Some one, he reported to the police, had broken into the restaurant some time during the early morning hours and plundered the establishment of everything but the counter.

Monckoff himself had his loss followed. Cash, $75; cash register, $100; meat, $6.33; silverware, $50; dishes, $20; sugar, $5.50; milk, $4.50; coffee, $2.50;
butter, $5, and tobacco, $50.

BOY WITH MUMPS SOUGHT
A 6-year-old boy, with both jaws greatly distorted by mumps, was being sought by deputy sheriffs yesterday. The boy is Martin Ditchfield, son of Mrs. C. Ditchfield of Belvedere Gardens. He contracted the mumps several days ago but disappeared from his home Thursday, apparently with the intention of initiating an exploration tour despite the handicap of swollen jaws and streaming nose and eyes. He has run away before, according to his mother.
